RACQUETBALL ASSOCIATION OF IRELAND

RULES AND REGULATIONS

APPENDIX ONE

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. GENERAL

The Racquetball Association of Ireland Code of Conduct is issued pursuant Rule 3.17 Technical Fouls and Warnings of the International Racquetball Federation Rule Book (See Appendix Two) and covers the conduct of events run and organised under the auspices of Racquetball Association of Ireland and is designed to secure the future well-being of racquetball. Different aspects of the Code may have relevance to players, officials, spectators and administrators involved in a racquetball tournament or competition. The Code, therefore, applies to all these categories and should be understood by all concerned with competitive racquetball. Racquetball Association of Ireland supports the Rules of Racquetball as published by the International Racquetball Federation. All tournaments and competitions organised in Ireland under the auspices of or in conjunction with Racquetball Association of Ireland shall be played according to these rules and the Rules and Regulations of the Racquetball Association of Ireland.

2. EVENTS ADMINISTRATION

Organisers of racquetball tournaments and competitions must ensure that clear and comprehensive regulations are prepared and available to all competitors in time to permit compliance with such regulations.

Administrative instructions, which require particular actions by players and / or officials, must be clearly stated and communicated to those concerned. Adequate arrangements must be made to permit the proper conduct of a tournament or competition.

3. PLAYERS

The Code of Conduct for players (and their managers and coaching staff where applicable) applies to individuals and teams. Any player who enters tournaments or competitions thereby accepts all regulations associated with the event, and shall subsequently comply with them.

No players shall withdraw from an event after submitting an application to enter without the consent of the event organiser. Such consent will normally only be given in the following circumstances:

- When the player has incurred accidental injury or ill-health after submitting an entry application.
- When family or other circumstances warrants a player to withdraw
- Players must be familiar with the Rules of Racquetball and must make every effort to comply with them

Players must conduct themselves at all times in a way which brings credit to the image of racquetball in the eyes of spectators, the media and sponsors. They must conduct themselves with dignity on court and recognise the need for continuity of play. They must recognise the legitimate interests of the racquetball media, and make themselves available to meet reasonable requests for interviews, photo calls and press briefings. They must also recognise their responsibilities to sponsors and event organisers, and meet reasonable requests to attend formal and informal functions associated with the event. Some specific aspects of behaviour on court, or in public, which are considered contrary to creditable conduct, are included in the following list, which is not intended to be comprehensive.

Swearing

Making offensive gestures

Disputing decisions made by a referee

Arguing/conversations with line judges

Deliberate contact between players or between players and playing equipment.

Making offensive comments, or comments which might be regarded as offensive about opponent, match officials, coaches or spectators on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, gender or disability.

4. SPECTATORS AND COACHES

Spectators must remain silent during rallies, and should not encourage extended and undignified delays between rallies by attempting to provoke discussion between players and officials, or between the players themselves.

In the event of disruptive or threatening behavior on the part of any spectator, relative, parent, guardian, or coach at any RAI sanctioned event, the referee is empowered to address a first offense by enforcing sanction #1 detailed below. For additional infractions, the tournament director, or RAI official in attendance, either of their own accord or at the request of the referee, is empowered to enforce sanctions #2 and #3 as warranted.

#1. For the first offense: violator may watch, but not speak, while the athlete's match is being played.

#2. For the second offense: violator may not watch the athlete's match, but may remain within the building.

#3. For the third offense: violator will be removed from the club for the duration of the tournament, and pertinent authorities advised of the restriction. If a given situation so warrants, the tournament director or RAI official may invoke this sanction immediately and without previous offenses, in the interest of safety.

Coaches are bound by the same rules as players, in as far as technical violations are concerned. Full listing and appropriate disciplinary measures are detailed in Rule 3.17.

5. DISCIPLINARY MATTERS

The Racquetball Association of Ireland supports the Rules of Racquetball as published by the International Racquetball Federation. All tournaments and competitions organised in Ireland under the auspices of or in conjunction with Racquetball Association of Ireland shall be played according to the rules of racquetball.

6. RULES OF RACQUETBALL – CODE OF CONDUCT AND RESULTING PENALTIES

6.1 The Code of conduct and resulting penalties are contained within the Rules of Racquetball and they outline the powers available to any referee for dealing with on court offences by players.

6.1.1 In addition, the Tournament Director or RAI Tournament Secretary must submit a report to the Racquetball Association of Ireland within 10 days or as soon as reasonably practical of breach of a the Code of Contact to include Grade 1, Grade 11 or Grade 111 offence. The Tournament Director or RAI Tournament Secretary must also include details of any breaches of the Code of Conduct that have not been dealt with by the referee during the match. This report will have details of the offence/s, players involved and the names of referee/line judges.

Where a Grade II or Grade III offence is deemed to have occurred then the procedures in paragraph 6.1.1 should be implemented. Witness names should be taken if applicable, and also a brief statement taken if possible. The result of the match as called by the referee will not be affected by breaches noted independently by the Tournament Director or RAI Tournament Secretary.

6.1.2 The following offences, Graded 1 to 3 in order of seriousness, if committed by an individual may be subject to penalties under Rule 3.17 of the International Racquetball Federation Rules and will result in fines and/or disciplinary action being taken against the responsible person;

Grade I

The Player or individual:

Commits any Rule 3.17 offence not falling within Grades 2 and Grades 3 below.

Grade II

The Player or individual:

- i fails to complete a match for a reason other than injury, illness or emergency situation;
- ii defaults from a Championship or Tournament (the RAI may require evidence of bona fide injury, illness or other emergency situation).
- iii is disqualified by the referee.

Grade III

The player or individual:

- i physically abuses his opponent, referee, officials, spectators or sponsors;
- ii participates when suspended, ineligible or unqualified;
- iii influences the result of a match by arrangement;
- iv is guilty of any other unreasonable conduct which brings the game into disrepute, including behaviour as a result of intoxication, by any means including use of recreational substances such as alcohol, marijuana and hallucinogens.
- v Failure to pay fines or abide by suspensions imposed from a previous incident.

This list is not exhaustive and all cases of Code of Conduct violations, including those by spectators and coaches will be dealt with the RAI Disciplinary Committee.

Fines and suspensions shall be enforced as follows:

Grade I - Upon 3 incidents of Grade I Violations in 12 months – a written warning to the player or individual and mandatory requirement to attend rules course before taking part in next competition. Two written warnings within 12 months shall constitute a Grade 2 offence

Grade II - Fine of €100 (Note: Two fines of €100 within 12 months shall constitute a Grade 3 offence).

Grade III - Six month ban from all RAI Tournaments, Teams or events plus a fine of €200.

7. DISCIPLINARY MATTERS AT CLUB LEVEL

7.1 If not already covered in paragraph 6, will be dealt with by the club concerned or other delegated appropriate authority.

8. DISCIPLINARY MATTERS AT EVENTS AT PROVINCIAL LEVEL

8.1 If not already covered in paragraph 6 will be dealt with by the Provincial Council concerned.

8.2 Any appeals will be dealt with by a Provincial Council Appeals Panel, so convened or by the Racquetball Association of Ireland itself, if so referred (9.3). The Provincial Council Appeals Panel should meet within 28 days of appeal notification.

9. DISCIPLINARY MATTERS AT EVENTS

9.1 The Racquetball Association of Ireland's Disciplinary Panel will deal with disciplinary Matters.

9.2 The Racquetball Association of Ireland's Appeals Panel will deal with any appeals.

10. GUIDANCE DEALING WITH DISCIPLINARY OFFENCES, DISCIPLINARY HEARINGS AND APPEALS

10.1 The alleged offender must be informed as soon as possible after the alleged breach of the Code of Conduct, that a report is to be submitted to the appropriate Disciplinary Panel and that he/she may be the subject of a disciplinary hearing.

10.2 The tournament director must submit a written report and written statements to the Tournament Secretary within seven days or as soon as reasonably practical of the alleged breach of the Code of Conduct.

10.3 The Disciplinary Panel will consider the Tournament Director or Tournament Secretary's Report and issue a finding on the report and apply sanctions as outlined in 6.1.2. The Disciplinary Panel must notify the alleged offender in writing that a formal complaint against him/her has been received. He/she shall be invited to provide written response about the incident or incidents, which gave rise to the allegation, and indicate whether he/she accepts the accuracy of the charges and the sanction(s) imposed on him/her. In all cases, he/she should be informed of his/her right to have the matter dealt with at a disciplinary hearing under 10.4 below. If he/she requests a disciplinary hearing, the Disciplinary Panel shall supply to him/her with all copies of the written reports and statements referred to in paragraph 6.1.1. A fee of 100€ is payable on the request for a hearing which will be refunded if the offender is found innocent of the charge.

10.4 A Disciplinary Panel shall consist of not less than three persons appointed to consider the written reports and other relevant documentation and, if necessary, shall convene a disciplinary hearing to be held at the Disciplinary Panel's discretion. The Disciplinary Panel should be given clear guidance as to its powers to impose disciplinary sanctions should it find the allegations to be substantiated by the evidence. The Disciplinary Panel may be standing or convened to consider a particular incident, and may not contain any person who has any connection with the parties involved.

10.5 If a hearing is called, it is essential that the alleged offender be given reasonable opportunity to attend (minimum 14 days) and/or be represented, and statements taken from witnesses must have been served on him/her fourteen days prior to the hearing.

10.6 Consideration of the alleged breaches of the Code of Conduct, whether involving a disciplinary hearing or not, should be dealt with as a clear priority. (It is impossible to set an arbitrary timescale to cover all levels of racquetball but, at the very least, the aim should be to complete the initial disciplinary process (excluding appeal) within one month of the alleged breach.

10.7 The alleged offender should have the right to appeal to the Appeals Panel as set out in paragraph 10.9 against the findings of the relevant Disciplinary Panel and/or any penalty imposed. He/she should also have the right to convene an appeal hearing.

10.8 Ranges of sanctions are available as outlined in Paragraph 6.1.2 above for application by a Disciplinary Panel, which considers that the Racquetball Association of Ireland's Code of Conduct has been breached.

10.9 Any person wishing to appeal against a decision by a Disciplinary Panel must register an intention to appeal to the relevant Appeal Panel in writing, with the Disciplinary Panel which issued the sanction within seven days of being notified of the Disciplinary Panel's decision. Persons appealing against a decision by the Racquetball Association of Ireland's Disciplinary Panel must provide a deposit of €100.00 in the form of a cheque to the Racquetball Association of Ireland. The deposit will be returned in full if the appeal is upheld. If the appeal is not upheld, the costs of the appeal will be taken from the deposit. Any penalty imposed by a Disciplinary Panel shall be suspended pending the outcome of the appeal. An Appeal Panel will consider the matter afresh by way of a re-consideration of all relevant reports and statements and should consider the reports and findings of the Disciplinary Panel who first handled the case. The Appeal Panel may call a further hearing and may consider fresh evidence. Those appointed to hear an appeal may confirm, set aside, reduce or increase any penalties already imposed.

10.10 Any expenses of the Disciplinary Panel, the informant and witnesses involved in the first disciplinary hearing will be borne by the Disciplinary Panel dealing with the alleged breach of the Code. The alleged offender must bear his/her own expenses unless the Disciplinary Panel otherwise decides. However, the Disciplinary Panel may, if it so decides, pass on costs reasonably incurred by the offender.

10.11 All expenses incurred or connected with any Appeal (including costs associated with any hearing) will be borne by the person making the appeal, unless the findings of the Disciplinary Panel (or any part thereof if there is more than one allegation), are set aside. These costs or such proportion as is considered reasonable by the relevant Appeal Panel hearing the appeal, will then become the responsibility of the Disciplinary Panel whose decision has been appealed against.

10.12 An alleged offender may be assisted by a legal adviser or supporter at a hearing if he/she so wishes

11. CIVIL OR CRIMINAL ACTION

If civil or criminal proceedings are pending, all reports and statements should be collated as normal, but the disciplinary proceedings postponed until a decision by the civil or criminal authorities has been reached.

12. PENALTIES

12.1 In order to ensure that punishments are as consistent as possible, all results of the disciplinary hearings should be given to the Racquetball Association of Ireland immediately the appeal time limit has expired. Relevant information will then be circulated periodically to Clubs and published on the Racquetball Association of Ireland website.

12.2 Fines imposed on individuals must be paid within specific time limits, which should be outlined in the communication with the individual involved. Generally fines must be paid within three weeks of being imposed unless an appeal is sought. Individuals may not take part in RAI sanctioned events until all fines are paid.

12.3 Should an individual fail to pay a fine or abide by a suspension, the Racquetball Association of Ireland may take action to expel the individual as outlined in the Constitution of the Racquetball Association of Ireland

13. DRUG REGULATIONS

The anti-doping rules of the Racquetball Association of Ireland are the Irish Anti-Doping Rules as amended from time to time by the Irish Sports Council. These rules override the code of conduct where conflicts occur.

Rule 3.17 TECHNICAL FOULS AND WARNINGS

(a) The referee is empowered to deduct one point from a player's or team's score when, in the referee's sole judgment, the player is being overly and deliberately abusive. The actual invoking of this penalty is called a "referee's technical." If the player or team against whom the technical was assessed does not resume play immediately, the referee is empowered to forfeit the match in favor of the opponent. Some examples of actions which may result in technicals are:

1. Profanity.
2. Excessive arguing.
3. Threat of any nature to opponent or referee.
4. Excessive or hard striking of the ball between rallies.
5. Slamming of the racquet against walls or floor, slamming the door, or any action, which might result in damage to the court and/or injury to of other players.
6. Delay of game. Examples include (i) taking too much time to dry the court, (ii) excessive questioning of the referee about the rules, (iii) exceeding the time allotted for timeouts or between games, (iv) calling a timeout after the service motion begins, (v) calling a timeout when none are remaining will result in a technical warning. If this occurs again in the same game it will result in a technical foul. (vi) a technical foul will be assessed if the warm-up period is violated. The allowed warm-up time in singles is 5 minutes maximum for both players at the same time. In doubles each team will be allowed 4 minutes maximum for the warm-up.
7. Intentional front line foot faults to negate a bad lob serve.
8. Anything considered unsportsmanlike behavior.
9. Wearing improper clothing/uniform, as specified in Rule 2.5 (b).
10. Failure to wear proper eyewear, as specified in Rule 2.5 d).

(b) Coaching. Where coaches are involved, coaches or team representatives are bound by the same rules as far as technicals are concerned and any infractions are charged against the player. No coaches or representatives are allowed in the courts at anytime during a match unless granted permission by the referee. Failure to observe this rule is a technical and will be charged against the player. Any coach or player conducting themselves in a negative manner towards the referee or linesperson of a match shall receive the following penalties:

-First Offence: technical warning (minimum) - Subsequent Offences: technical on the coach/person's player or team.

c) Technical Warning. If a player's behavior is not so severe as to warrant a referee's technical, a technical warning may be issued without the deduction of a point.

d) Effect of Technical or Warning. If a referee issues a technical foul, one point shall be removed from the offender's score. No point will be deducted if a referee issues a technical warning. In either case, a technical foul or warning should be accompanied by a brief explanation. Issuing a technical foul or warning has no effect on who will be serving when play resumes. If a technical foul occurs when the offender has no points or between games, the result will be that the offender's score becomes minus one (-1).
